“ In 2016, Skydecor embarked on its journey with a vision to surpass conventional limits. With a sprawling infrastructure spanning over 50,000 square meters and equipped with cutting-edge machinery, we are committed to continual expansion and advancement. Our manufacturing facilities, located in Greater Noida and Hapur, specialize in producing PVC Laminates, Acrylic Laminates, and Decorative Laminates. Additionally, our operational headquarters is situated in Noida, with an Experience Centre conveniently located in Kirti Nagar.

With a proud legacy spanning a decade, Skydecor Laminates excels in revitalizing interior spaces. Our collections offer boundless possibilities, ensuring that every interior space exudes style and sophistication. From sleek solids to captivating textures, from natural inspirations to timeless designs, our diverse range of laminates caters to every aesthetic preference. ”

About Us

At Skydecor Laminates, we merge style with quality, establishing a hallmark of elegance and excellence. As the sole PVC laminate company in India certified as a Green Product, we deliver superior laminate sheets with unique features such as antibacterial properties, scratch resistance, impact resilience, fire retardance, and more setting us apart from the competition.

Our FR grade and Antibacterial Decorative Laminates enrich your space with exceptional artistic quality and a passion for excellence. Committed to industry standards, we offer innovative products that enhance the aesthetic appeal of your interiors.

Our Acrylic laminates, showcasing advanced high-gloss features, incorporate PMMA and ABS layers to ensure surface stability, scratch resistance, and suitability for interior applications. To stay current with the evolving trends, Skydecor has crafted fluted acrylic laminates, showcasing our dedication to pioneering design developments.

Innovation is not accidental at Skydecor; it's a product of years of dedication and a focused approach to fostering an environment of inspiration. Through substantial investment in research and development, we continuously strive for improvement, propelling us to the forefront of the industry.

In essence, we deliver quality, affordability, design, and sustainability. Our achievements speak volumes, and our commitment to excellence remains unwavering.
